Italian Liner Criticized in Tragedy Probe

Say Andrea Doria Barely Came Up to Safety Standards

WASHINGTON (AP) — Specialists who investigated the Andrea Doria sinking for a House committee say the Italian luxury liner met "by a very narrow margin" international safety standards.

In Genoa, owners of the multi-million-dollar vessel disputed this and other findings of a panel which conducted the investigation for the House Merchant Marine Committee.

The probe was the outgrowth of the loss of the Doria off the Atlantic coast July 25 after a col-

Chest Agencies Share $19,103 Fund Allocation

A total of $19,103.75 was allocated from the Community Chest to the 10 participating organizations by the board of directors at a meeting Thursday night.

The allocations, made on the basis of 85 per cent of the requests, were:

Boy Scouts $3,672; Camp Fire Girls $850; Community Activities fund of Chamber of Commerce $1,275; 4-H Club Camp $425; Public Park on Millikan Ave. $1,275; Salvation Army $2,550; YWCA for Y-Teen clubs $289; USO for service personnel $425; Girl Scouts $425 and Red Cross, participating for the first time, $7,917.75.

Although the Community Chest goal of $23,500 was not reached, this year's distribution was the largest ever made here. Last year, $12,480 was distributed. This was $520 less than the largest previous distribution of $13,000 made in 1954.

THE FUND-RAISING campaign, which started in mid-October, has not been officially ended, Perse Harlow, executive secretary, said after the meeting. He explained that some contributions still are being trickled in—for example a check for $15 arrived the day before the board meeting. Any contributions which come in from now on, he said, will go into the depleted reserve fund of the Community Chest to serve as a cushion later on if needed. This reserve, he pointed out, "never has been very big, but there are times when it does help."

The Community Chest goal was larger than ever this time, Harlow said, because the Red Cross was among the participants for the first time. While there were a few more contributors this time, Harlow said, the larger total was raised principally because of increases in contributions, rather than an increase in the number of contributors.

The next meeting of the board is scheduled for Feb. 28. Five new directors are to be elected then and representatives of the participating organizations are to make their reports on the use of the money they have received and their plans for the future.

Members of the board are Leonard Essman, president; Dr. John Richards, first vice president; Miss Mary Frances Snider, second vice president and treasurer; Mrs. Robert Caldwell, Russell Hinchey, Miss Louise Ritter; H. F. (Bud) Schue, John Breiner, Homer Bireley, Mrs. W. P. Noble, Paul Rodenfels, Miss Florence Cook, Lawrence Grim, William A. Patient Little Thug Escapes With $17,000

MILTON, Wis. (AP) — A patient, diminutive gunman who parked his car outside the Bank of Milton this morning and waited for the first official to arrive took some $17,000 from the bank's vault.

The gunman was described by Asst. Cashier John Misener as 5 feet 2 inches tall and about 24 years old.

Misener said the young man had parked a late model blue-green or gray-green Pontiac sedan at the curb in front of the bank. When Misener arrived to open the bank, the man approached, drew a gun and ordered the official to open the bank.

The money was taken from a money chest in the bank vault.

"It was protected by a time lock," Cashier Phil Hudson said, "but the lock had run out at 7 o'clock. The holdup man apparently was that familiar with vault operations."

At the hour, light was poor. But Misener said the holdup man was unmasked, and was wearing a light jacket and a brown leather cap.

HANNIBAL, Mo. (AP) — John Bobbitt, 46, was cut in two by a switch engine Thursday but amazed doctors by clinging to life more than five hours.

Through three of those hours he talked with his wife, a minister and doctors, who told him almost from the outset he would die. He did not appear in much pain. Then doctors gave him an anesthetic and he died two hours later.

Dr. J. W. Weil said the crushing injury, across the abdomen, sealed off blood vessels and there was almost no bleeding.

Entry Makes Wheat Tax Injunction Permanent

A judgment entry, making permanent the temporary injunction against the collection in Fayette County of the personal property tax on wheat delivered to the federal Commodity Credit Corp. under the price support program, has been filed in Common Pleas Court.

The entry also releases Rollo M. Marchant and Glenn Smith from the $1,000 bond posted with the court.

The petition for the injunction and declaratory judgment to determine ownership of the wheat was filed by Marchant and Smith against Fayette County Auditor Harry Allen and Treasurer Charles A. Fabb.

Judge John P. Case granted the temporary injunction Oct. 8. In granting the permanent injunction, Judge Case held the producers of the wheat neither owned the wheat nor had any taxable interest in it at tax listing time in the years 1953, 1954 and 1955.

SINCE the injunction was sought by Marchant and Smith in behalf of themselves and approximately 600 other wheat growers in Fayette County, the restraining order issued by Judge Case blocks the collection of the tax in the county.

Although Auditor Allen and Treasurer Fabb made out the tax bills for the so-called wheat tax and planned to include them with the statements which went to property owners the last week of December, they made no attempt to conceal their opposition to the wheat tax.

Both have expressed personal opinions that the tax was unfair and inequitable because much of the wheat produced in Fayette County and wheat delivered to the Commodity Credit Corp. was stored outside the county. It is taxed, under state law, at the rate of the taxing district in which it is stored, with the tax money going to that district. They also pointed out that grain shipped outside the state was not taxed at all.

They had contended, as did Marchant and Smith in their injunction suit, that the tax was illegal because the producers had paid federal income tax on the money they

Congress Asks 'Cost, Danger' Estimate on Mid-East Policy

Canadian Strike Hurting Economy

MONTREAL (AP) — The coast-to-coast strike on the Canadian Pacific Railway cut a little deeper today into the country's economy. But no government intervention appeared likely before Parliament reconvenes Tuesday.

Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent said he had nothing to announce after prolonged Cabinet sessions Thursday on the crippling walkout.

The strike in its first two days has idled 73,000 railroad and other workers and threatens cutbacks and hardships to many points served by CPR's 17,000 miles of track, nearly half of Canada's railway mileage.

St. Laurent indicated that the Cabinet at another meeting Monday may recommend parliamentary action to end Canada's first rail strike since 1950. Any requested legislation likely will not be known until the traditional "Speech from the Throne" Tuesday outlines the government's plan for the lawmakers.

SOME GOVERNMENT economists say Canada's powerful economy may not be seriously affected for a week. They estimate that the work stoppage now is cutting national production by a little more than $1 million daily, or about one per cent. They estimate the daily loss after a week may rise to $10 million.

Such a loss over a prolonged period would have a serious impact on national production, expected to reach a record $31 billion this year.

3 Appointments Made to State Agriculture Panel

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Outgoing Gov. Frank J. Lausche Thursday appointed three men to membership on the state board of agriculture in his last official act before resigning to become the junior U. S. senator from Ohio. The appointments were sent to the Ohio Senate for confirmation.

The appointees are A. G. Madden of Madiera in Hamilton County, George C. Pidgeon of Wilmington and Emerson Hizer of Cadiz. Madden's term would end in 1959 and the terms of Pidgeon and Hizer in 1962.

Lausche also appointed Lawrence H. Kite, a Cincinnati attorney, to the underground parking commission. He would serve on that group, which is planning to construct a parking garage under the State House grounds, until next October. He replaces Warren Crimes of Urbana.

Highway Slaughter Hits All-Time High

CHICAGO (AP) — The nation's motorists set an all-time record for highway slaughter in 1956, the National Safety Council says. The number of traffic deaths was placed Thursday at 40,020—271 more than the old record of 39,969 set in 1941, and a 5 per cent rise in the 1955 total of 38,426.

The new high culminated an ever-increasing trend in reports of auto fatalities. For 29 months in a row, the trend was upward. It was broken by a surprise drop of 12 per cent in October, but then resumed again in November.

A-Weapon Story Is Not Denied

WASHINGTON (AP)—A published report that U. S. Marines in the Mediterranean area have "live" atomic artillery weapons was discussed among top government officials Thursday. But there was no official confirmation or denial.

The report quoted Gen. Randolph Pate, Marine Corps commandant, who today was among those declining comment.

At the White House, Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said that President Eisenhower "has given no authority for use of atomic or any other weapons in the Middle East." But Hagerty did not deny that the weapons were on hand.

Sen. Lausche Remains Mum On Senate Filibuster Issue

WASHINGTON (AP)—On his second day as a senator, Ohio's Frank J. Lausche votes today on still another key Senate issue: A move aimed at ending the historic filibuster.

But again, as on his vote Thursday that helped the Democrats organize the Senate, the Ohio Democrat was not saying in advance which way he would vote.

At issue today is a motion by Sen. Anderson (D-NM) designed to revise the Senate rules. Its ultimate purpose is to stop talk-fests by senators that stall legislation, particularly civil rights bills.

Although Lausche refused, as do many members of Congress, to say what his vote would be, he did strongly criticize filibusters.

He told reporters in his still simply furnished office: "In the campaign, I declared that in my opinion justice required that decisions be made by the Senate on all issues having a relationship to good government."

THIS, HE SAID, should be done "without defeat of that moral right through filibusters and other dilatory tactics."

Lausche said he recalled lawyers trying to talk at length when he was a judge in Cleveland, in the hope he would rule in their favor. "I didn't think it was sound," he said.

Lausche's colleague, Sen. Bricker (R-Ohio), also expressed his views on this subject and said he feels that to rewrite Senate rules would be "unwise."

Asserting that "I shall work diligently to advance effective civil rights legislation," Bricker said that nevertheless "the pending motion raises a constitutional question."

He went on: "I cannot subscribe to the novel theory that

Last-Ditch Filibuster Fight Opens

WASHINGTON (AP)—The new 85th Congress, with the Democrats in the drivers' seat, swings into action today with a showdown Senate scrap over an effort to stifle filibusters against civil rights bills and other measures.

The House was in recess, but the Senate was embroiled in a fight sparked by a coalition of Northern and Western Democrats and Republicans to rewrite Senate rules.

A similar attempt four years ago went down to defeat 70-21. Sponsors advanced no victory claims, although they contended they had mustered more strength than they originally expected.

Lined up against them, along with an almost solid phalanx of Southerners, were Sen. Lyndon Johnson of Texas, the Senate majority leader, and Sen. Knowland of California, the GOP leader.

The issue was put before the Senate at its opening session Thursday when Sen. Anderson (D-NM) and 30 other senators offered a motion to take up for immediate consideration the adoption of rules for the new Congress.

LISTED AS sponsors were 16 Democrats, including Anderson, and 15 Republicans.

Johnson promptly moved to table, and thus kill, Anderson's motion. An agreement was reached to bring the issue to a vote at 6 p. m. today after a debate allowing each side equal time to present its arguments.

Target of the bipartisan group led by Anderson is the Senate rule requiring the votes of 64 senators, or two thirds of the entire membership, to halt a filibuster against civil rights legislation or other measures.

Anderson's followers concede that, as a practical matter, their only hope of revising the rule is to get the Senate to agree it is free to adopt new rules by a majority vote at the start of each Congress, that the previous rules do not carry over.

Opponents argue this is contrary to all precedents, that the Senate, with only a third of its members elected every two years, is a continuing body with continuing rules.

The rules issue cropped up in the Senate after the Democrats took control in the organization of both branches of the new Congress. In the House, the Democrats re-elected Speaker Sam Rayburn of Texas.

In the Senate, however, a tense situation developed because of uncertainty over whether Ohio's new senator, Frank J. Lausche, would vote with the Republicans or the Democrats. He did, clinching the election of Sen. Hayden (D-Ariz.) as president pro tempore of the Senate. The vote was 49-46.

New York's Republican senator-elect, Atty. Gen. Jacob K. Javits, did not take his seat or vote, though he was in Washington apparently to be available in case his vote was needed.

Actress Marie McDonald Vanishes from Her Home

VAN NUYS, Calif. (AP)—Actress Marie (The Body) McDonald vanished from her home early today and police are investigating whether she had been kidnapped.

The blonde beauty's mother, Mrs. Marie Tuboni of nearby Woodland Hills, told police she received a phone call at 12:45 a. m. at her own home. A "male, young, nervous voice" told her:

"We have Marie. No harm will come to her if police are not notified."

The mother called police, then rushed to her daughter's home in Encino. She found the front door ajar and lights blazing in Miss McDonald's bedroom.

The three house servants were sleeping. Soon after the call to Mrs. Tuboni, the actress' former husband, wealthy shoe manufacturer Harry Karl, received a call.

"We have your wife," he quoted the male caller. "If you want to see her alive again, don't contact police. We'll contact you later."

Found in Miss McDonald's mailbox, police said, was a penciled note not in her handwriting. It read:

"Don't call police. She won't be hurt to get money. We'll get in touch with you."

Inspector Henry Kerr, asked if police believe it was a kidnapping, said: "It's too early to tell."

Another police officer, declining to be quoted by name, said when asked the same question: "We're very skeptical."

Actor Michael Wilding, former husband of actress Elizabeth Taylor, has been Miss McDonald's escort in recent months. He told police he visited her Thursday but left about 7 p. m.

The 32-year-old actress has been married to three men—twice to Karl.

President Due To Detail Plan To Lawmakers

Saturday Afternoon Joint Session Booked For Formal Address

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower has been called upon to give Congress an estimate of the "costs and dangers" involved in his proposal for thwarting possible Red aggression in the Middle East.

Sen. Mike Mansfield (D-Mont.), a member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said Eisenhower should provide this information when he appears before a joint session Saturday afternoon.

The senator spoke out regarding Eisenhower's request for standby authority to use U. S. military forces in the Middle East in event of possible aggression there.

The President will go before an unusual Saturday joint session to press for approval of a resolution which would:

1. Give him advance authority to use U. S. military might if he felt such a move was necessary to block Russian intrusion into the Middle East.

2. Authorize the spending of $400 million over a two-year period beginning next July for economic aid to nations in the strife-racked area.

Eisenhower's speech will be carried by all television and radio networks at 12:30 p. m.

On Monday, Secretary of State Dulles will testify publicly on the proposal before the House Foreign Affairs Committee.

A committee spokesman said day invitations to testify have been sent also to former Presidents Truman and Hoover, to former secretaries of state Dean Acheson and George C. Marshall, and to New York Times columnist Walter Lippmann.

SO FAR THERE has been little outward opposition in Congress to the Eisenhower administration's Middle East proposals, pictured in some official quarters as needed to fill a power vacuum left by destruction of British and French influence in the region.

However, Rep. Jack Brooks (D-Tex.) said today it looks as if the said he holds Truman directly responsible for the death of Pvt. Kenneth Shadrack, first U. S. soldier to die in Korea.

The prisoner said he planned to kill the former President at his Independence, Mo., home next July 5, the seventh anniversary of the soldier's death.

Shadrack was arrested here Dec. 19 when his holdup attempt of the Home Builders Assn. was foiled by the scream of a woman teller. The 102-pound coal miner hoped to get $5,000 from the concern to use to "hole up" until July.

While serving with the army in Korea, Shadrack said he began hearing the "voice of his dead brother."

Actually, he said, he first planned to kill the former President in 1955. He said he went to Independence in March, 1955, to "ease" the Truman home and learn the for-er President's routine.

He said he had been in and out of several mental institutions.

The House was in recess, but the Senate was embroiled in a fight sparked by a coalition of Northern and Western Democrats and Republicans to rewrite Senate rules.

A similar attempt four years ago went down to defeat 70-21. Sponsors advanced no victory claims, although they contended they had mustered more strength than they originally expected.

Lined up against them, along with an almost solid phalanx of Southerners, were Sen. Lyndon Johnson of Texas, the Senate majority leader, and Sen. Knowland of California, the GOP leader.

The issue was put before the Senate at its opening session Thursday when Sen. Anderson (D-NM) and 30 other senators offered a motion to take up for immediate consideration the adoption of rules for the new Congress.

LISTED AS sponsors were 16 Democrats, including Anderson, and 15 Republicans.

Johnson promptly moved to table, and thus kill, Anderson's motion. An agreement was reached to bring the issue to a vote at 6 p. m. today after a debate allowing each side equal time to present its arguments.

Target of the bipartisan group led by Anderson is the Senate rule requiring the votes of 64 senators, or two thirds of the entire membership, to halt a filibuster against civil rights legislation or other measures.

Anderson's followers concede that, as a practical matter, their only hope of revising the rule is to get the Senate to agree it is free to adopt new rules by a majority vote at the start of each Congress, that the previous rules do not carry over.

Opponents argue this is contrary to all precedents, that the Senate, with only a third of its members elected every two years, is a continuing body with continuing rules.

The rules issue cropped up in the Senate after the Democrats took control in the organization of both branches of the new Congress. In the House, the Democrats re-elected Speaker Sam Rayburn of Texas.

In the Senate, however, a tense situation developed because of uncertainty over whether Ohio's new senator, Frank J. Lausche, would vote with the Republicans or the Democrats. He did, clinching the election of Sen. Hayden (D-Ariz.) as president pro tempore of the Senate. The vote was 49-46.

New York's Republican senator-elect, Atty. Gen. Jacob K. Javits, did not take his seat or vote, though he was in Washington apparently to be available in case his vote was needed.

Actress Marie McDonald Vanishes from Her Home

VAN NUYS, Calif. (AP) — Actress Marie (The Body) McDonald vanished from her home early today and police are investigating whether she had been kidnapped.

The blonde beauty's mother, Mrs. Marie Tuboni of nearby Woodland Hills, told police she received a phone call at 12:45 a. m. at her own home. A "male, young, nervous voice" told her:

"We have Marie. No harm will come to her if police are not notified."

The mother called police, then rushed to her daughter's home in Encino. She found the front door ajar and lights blazing in Miss McDonald's bedroom.

The three house servants were sleeping. Soon after the call to Mrs. Tuboni, the actress' former husband, wealthy shoe manufacturer Harry Karl, received a call.

"We have your wife," he quoted

President Due To Detail Plan To Lawmakers

Saturday Afternoon Joint Session Booked For Formal Address

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower has been called upon to give Congress an estimate of the "costs and dangers" involved in his proposal for thwarting possible Red aggression in the Middle East.

Sen. Mike Mansfield (D-Mont.), a member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said Eisenhower should provide this information when he appears before a joint session Saturday afternoon.

The senator spoke out regarding Eisenhower's request for standby authority to use U. S. military forces in the Middle East in event of possible aggression there.

The President will go before an unusual Saturday joint session to press for approval of a resolution which would:

1. Give him advance authority to use U. S. military might if he felt such a move was necessary to block Russian intrusion into the Middle East.

2. Authorize the spending of $400 million over a two-year period beginning next July for economic aid to nations in the strife-wracked area.

Eisenhower's speech will be carried by all television and radio networks at 12:30 p. m.

On Monday, Secretary of State Dulles will testify publicly on the proposal before the House Foreign Affairs Committee.

A committee spokesman said to day invitations to testify have been sent also to former Presidents Truman and Hoover, to former secretaries of state Dean Acheson and George C. Marshall, and to New York Times columnist Walter Lippman.

SO FAR THERE has been little outward opposition in Congress to the Eisenhower administration's Middle East proposals, pictured in some official quarters as needed to fill a power vacuum left by destruction of British and French influence in the region.

However, Rep. Jack Brooks (D-Tex.) said today it looks as if the

Vet Admits Plot To Kill Harry Truman

ALBEMARLE, N. C. (AP) — A Korean veteran from Skelton, W. Va., saying he was bent on avenging his brother's death, revealed a weird plan here Thursday to assassinate former President Harry S. Truman.

Frail, 32-year-old Leroy Shadrack, speaking from a cell in the Stanley County jail where he is held for attempted armed robbery, said he holds Truman directly responsible for the death of Pvt. Kenneth Shadrack, July 3, 1950. He was reportedly the first U. S. soldier to die in Korea.

The prisoner said he planned to kill the former President at his Independence, Mo., home next July 5, the seventh anniversary of the soldier's death.

Shadrack was arrested here Dec. 19 when his holdup attempt of the Home Builders Assn. was foiled by the scream of a woman teller. The 102-pound coal miner hoped to get $3,000 from the concern to use to "hole up" until July.

While serving with the army in Korea, Shadrack said he began hearing the "voice of his dead brother."

Actually, he said, he first planned to kill the former President in 1955. He said he went to Independence in March, 1955, to "case" the Truman home and learn the for or President's routine.

He said he had been in and out of several mental institutions.

Plans Are Made For C. of C. 'Congress Clinic'

WCH Businessmen
To Attend Cincinnati
Meeting Feb. 14

William Stoughton, manager of the Washington C. H. Chamber of Commerce, today expressed the hope that at least 20 businessmen will go to Cincinnati for a "Congressional Issues Clinic" Feb. 14.

He and Walter Morrow, chairman of the Chamber's area development committee, attended a meeting in Cincinnati Thursday when plans for the clinic were formulated.

The meeting will be one of 12 held in cities in different sections of the country during February under sponsorship of the United States Chamber of Commerce. The Cincinnati session is for businessmen in the three-state area comprised of Ohio, Kentucky and Indiana.

Primary purpose of the planning meeting Thursday, Stoughton said, was to explain the importance of the clinics, and their purposes and to select the subjects which will be discussed by specialists in those fields.

OF THE 13 subjects suggested, six were picked for discussion at the Cincinnati clinic. Agriculture will be one of the subjects, included at the insistence of Stoughton and Morrow, who contended it is one of the most vital in the three-state area.

Other subjects are: Minimum wages, education, right-to-work, atomic energy, taxes and spending and the Hoover Commission report.

There were 31 representatives of nine Chambers of Commerce at the planning meeting.

More than 500 are expected to attend the meeting Feb. 14. The purposes of the clinics are (1) To bring businessmen of the country an intimate, close-up picture of the new Congress and (2) To help businessmen take a more active interest in current legislative proposals affecting them.

Trumbull Democrat Chief Under Fire

WARREN, Ohio (U.P.)—A group of Trumbull County Democratic lawyers has asked Frank Cickelli, chairman of the party's county organization, to resign by Jan. 10. The group said in a letter to Cickelli, made public Thursday, it would take further action if Cickelli does not step down.

The lawyers charged that Cickelli is not eligible to hold the chairmanship of the county executive committee because he no longer resides in the fifth ward, which he represents as a committeeman. State statute says a committeeman must live in the precinct he represents.

Steel Firms Ask Dismissal of Suit

NEW YORK (U.P.)—The Youngstown Sheet and Tube Co. and Bethlehem Steel Corp. Thursday asked the federal court here to dismiss a government suit aimed at blocking merger of the two companies. The Justice Department filed suit Dec. 12.

At the same time, Youngstown and Bethlehem filed denials of the department's charge that the proposed merger would violate anti-trust laws.

The Justice Department said the merger "may substantially lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly, in violation of section seven of the Clayton Act."

Idle Benefits OK'd by Judge

YOUNGSTOWN (U.P.)—A judge ruled Thursday that 198 employees of Truscon Steel Division should get unemployment benefits for a 1950 two-week plant shutdown.

Reversing a decision by the board of review of the state Bureau of Unemployment Compensation, common pleas judge David G. Jenkins said Truscon's contract with the United Steelworkers union provided vacation shutdowns of departments only, not the whole plant.

Gov. Brown Eyes Dr. Sam's Appeal

COLUMBUS, Ohio (U.P.)—Ohio's interim governor, John W. Brown, says he will give consideration to appeal briefs of Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard. The briefs have been rejected by the Ohio and U. S. supreme courts.

He gave no indication, however, of further action in the case of the convicted Cleveland wife-slayer, now serving a life term for second degree murder.

Brown, who will serve for 11 days until the inauguration of Gov.-elect C. William O'Neill, said he requested to examine the briefs by Sheppard's attorney, William J. Corrigan of Cleveland. Brown added that Corrigan made no direct request to pardon Sheppard or commute his sentence, actions which Brown as governor has the power to take.

Baby's Death Brings Probe In Cincinnati

CINCINNATI (U.P.)—Detective Chief Henry Sandman said charges would be filed today in the death Wednesday night of an 11-month-old baby girl who was the central figure only a month ago in a custody suit filed by her mother.

Detectives John Green and Lytle Young said Bruce Handley, 21, listed as the baby's father, admitted choking and beating Victoria Ann Wednesday night because he was "angry" with her when she cried while he was watching television.

The baby's mother, Mrs. Joyce Handley, 21, was visiting relatives at the time.

Green and Young said Handley first told them bruises on Victoria Ann's body came from his efforts at artificial respiration after she became ill. They said he later admitted choking the baby twice and said he then tried artificial respiration to revive the child.

Dr. Frank Cleveland, coroner's pathologist, said an autopsy showed death was due to internal hemorrhages from a ruptured liver.

Victoria Ann figured in the news late in November when her mother filed suit against Mr. and Mrs. William Woodrow Scott of nearby Batavia, Ohio. She claimed they were holding Victoria Ann in lieu of a $600 bond bill which the Scotts claimed was owed them for care of the child.

The Scotts had cared for the child since last May while the Handleys went on a "second honeymoon" after Handley returned from military service.

The suit finally was dropped after the Scotts gave up the child and after Mrs. Handley signed a release saying the baby was in good health.

Want Nice Pet? Try a Tarantula

LOS ANGELES (U.P.)—A UCLA zoologist has put in a good word for large desert scorpions, black widow spiders, tarantulas and other crawling creatures. They're not so bad, he says.

Dr. Raymond Cowies said the sting of the large scorpion is little more severe than that of a bee. It's the smaller ones in southern Arizona that cause deaths.

The black widow's bite, though painful, is seldom lethal, says the doctor, and he thinks the fear-some looking tarantula, although it bites, makes a good pet.

Could It Have Been That Boring, Really?

DAYTON (U.P.)—A woman called police Thursday, alarmed, because she was "talking to a lady on the phone a while ago and now she won't answer."

A few minutes later the police dispatcher announced everything was all right.

"The woman said she fell asleep while her friend was talking," the dispatcher explained.

Driver Escapes Injury as Car Leaves Road

Sherman Willard Wilson, 19, Route 1, escaped serious injury when his car left the road and broke a telephone pole Thursday evening. The car was extensively damaged.

The accident occurred at 4:30 p. m. on the Staunton-Sugar Grove Rd. about seven miles south of here.

Deputy Sheriff Don Thompson reported that Wilson told him his coat caught on the "spinner" (a small handle) on the steering wheel as he rounded a curve.

An automobile driven by O. L. Ohnstad, 44, of 623 Park Dr., ran into the side of a car driven by Lola F. Aleshire, 65, Orient, at the intersection of Willard and Elm Sts. at 8:50 a. m. Friday. Patrolman Virgil Harris said Ohnstad told him he had stopped at Elm St. and did not see the approaching car until he hit it. No charges were filed.

Await Ike Report

United States "used" dollars instead of "diplomacy" in trying to bolster the strategic Middle East country of Iran.

Brooks is a member of the House International Operations subcommittee which Thursday used such terms as "loose," "slipshod" and "shocking" to describe America's quarter-billion-dollar aid program to Iran in 1951-56.

The subcommittee pictured U. S. aid as pouring "uncontrolled" money into Iran when Iran got into economic troubles after Premier Mossadegh's 1951 seizure of the British-owned Anglo-Iranian Oil Co.

It said American gift dollars have continued to go to the Middle East country at a high rate even though her oil earnings started up again in 1954.

Iran, with a 1,000-mile border with Russia and an estimated 13 per cent of the world's oil reserves, is presumably one of the countries thought of in Eisenhower's plan to thwart any Soviet aggression in the Middle East.

Overseas, the administration's proposal for standby troop authority met a hostile reaction from sources in Syria, Egypt and Yugoslavia.

IN DAMASCUS, Ihsan El Jabri, chairman of the Syrian Parliament's Foreign Affairs Committee, called the plan "a plot engineered by the imperialists."

In Cairo, the newspaper Al Mesaa published an article saying Eisenhower's request involves a method "rejected by all the peoples of the world."

In Belgrade, the Communist newspaper Borba said that by adopting the Eisenhower plan the United States would risk appearing in Arab eyes "as an heir to the colonial powers."

In Moscow, the Soviet government newspaper Izvestia charged the United States has "openly announced its intention to undermine United Nations efforts to restore peace and security in the Middle East."

An article written by the newspaper's New York correspondent said Eisenhower's proposed new Middle East policy would "rekindle the flames of war."

The first infant arrived at 7:30 a. m. and weighed three pounds, fourteen and one-quarter ounces, and the second little girl arrived 7:38 a. m. weighing four pounds, ten and one-quarter ounces.

A son was born Thursday to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hunt of Bloomington. The infant arrived 12:40 p. m. in Memorial Hospital and weighed eight pounds, three ounces.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Hurd, Jeffersonville, are the parents of a seven pound, thirteen and one-half ounce daughter Jana Lee, born at 5:47 p. m. Thursday in Greene Memorial Hospital, Xenia. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Lewis F. Hurd, Columbus, and Mr. Homer Johnson of Jackson.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Rinehart, Milledgeville, are the parents of a son born 5:02 a. m. Friday in Memorial Hospital and weighing six pounds, fourteen ounces.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Kelley, Route 2, Mt. Sterling, are announcing the birth of a daughter, 2:30 p. m. Thursday in Memorial Hospital weighing seven pounds, six ounces.

Reckless Driving Charge Dismissed

A charge of reckless operation against Roscoe Whiteside of Bloomington, was dismissed by Judge Max G. Dice in Municipal Court Friday morning. He pleaded not guilty at his arraignment and, after hearing the testimony, Judge Dice dismissed the case.

The charge was filed by Dolly Fitch, Washington C. H., after she said her car was crowded off Lewis Rd. and into a fence on the Jesse Hagler farm Jan. 2.

Deputy Sheriff Don Thompson testified in court that, in his opinion, Whiteside was in no way responsible for the accident.

This was the only case on the Municipal Court docket Friday.

'Mad Bomber' May Live in White Plains

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y. (U.P.)—New York City police are operating on the assumption that the "mad bomber" lives in this city 20 miles from Manhattan.

New York Deputy Inspector Frederick M. Lussen, who heads the police search for the "mad bomber," said Thursday the assumption was based in large part on plumbers' terms for the length of pipe used in the bombs.

Meanwhile, a rash of hoaxes continued in New York City as well as in other parts of the nation. And arrests for false bomb reports also continued to mount.

In New York City almost 200 bomb scares have been received since a live bomb, linked by police to the authentic "bomber" was found Dec. 24 in the New York Public Library. Another of his un-

Baby's Death Brings Probe In Cincinnati

CINCINNATI (AP)—Detective Chief Henry Sandman said charges would be filed today in the death Wednesday night of an 11-month-old baby girl who was the central figure only a month ago in a custody suit filed by her mother.

Detectives John Green and Lytle Young said Bruce Handley, 21, listed as the baby's father, admitted choking and beating Victoria Ann Wednesday night because he was "angry" with her when she cried while he was watching television.

The baby's mother, Mrs. Joyce Handley, 21, was visiting relatives at the time.

Green and Young said Handley first told them bruises on Victoria Ann's body came from his efforts at artificial respiration after she became ill. They said he later admitted choking the baby twice and said he then tried artificial respiration to revive the child.

Dr. Frank Cleveland, coroner's pathologist, said an autopsy showed death was due to internal hemorrhages from a ruptured liver.

Victoria Ann figured in the news late in November when her mother filed suit against Mr. and Mrs. William Woodrow Scott of nearby Batavia, Ohio. She claimed they were holding Victoria Ann in lieu of a $600 bond bill which the Scotts claimed was owed them for care of the child.

The Scotts had cared for the child since last May while the Handleys went on a "second honeymoon" after Handley returned from military service.

The suit finally was dropped after the Scotts gave up the child and after Mrs. Handley signed a release saying the baby was in good health.

Want Nice Pet? Try a Tarantula

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A UCLA zoologist has put in a good word for large desert scorpions, black widow spiders, tarantulas and other crawling creatures. They're not so bad, he says.

Dr. Raymond Cowles said the sting of the large scorpion is little more severe than that of a bee. It's the smaller ones in southern Arizona that cause deaths.

The black widow's bite, though painful, is seldom lethal, says the doctor, and he thinks the fear-some looking tarantula, although it bites, makes a good pet.

Could It Have Been That Boring, Really?

DAYTON (AP)—A woman called police Thursday, alarmed because she was "talking to a lady on the phone a while ago and now she won't answer."

A few minutes later the police dispatcher announced everything was all right.

"The woman said she fell asleep while her friend was talking," the dispatcher explained.

Driver Escapes Injury as Car Leaves Road

Sherman Willard Wilson, 19, Route 1, escaped serious injury when his car left the road and broke a telephone pole Thursday evening. The car was extensively damaged.

The accident occurred at 4:30 p. m. on the Staunton-Sugar Grove Rd. about seven miles south of here.

Deputy Sheriff Don Thompson reported that Wilson told him his coat caught on the "spinner" (a small handle) on the steering wheel as he rounded a curve.

An automobile driven by O. L. Ohnstad, 44, of 623 Park Dr., ran into the side of a car driven by Lola F. Aleshire, 65, Orient, at the intersection of Willard and Elm Sts. at 8:50 a. m. Friday. Patrolman Virgil Harris said Ohnstad told him he had stopped at Elm St. and did not see the approaching car until he hit it. No charges were filed.

United States "useful" dollars instead of diplomacy," in trying to bolster the strategic Middle East country of Iran.

Brooks is a member of the House International Operations subcommittee which Thursday used such terms as "loose," "slipshod" and "shocking" to describe America's quarter-billion dollar aid program to Iran in 1955-56.

The subcommittee pictured U. S. aid as pouring "uncontrolled" money into Iran when Iran got into economic troubles after Premier Mossadegh's 1951 seizure of the British-owned Anglo-Iranian Oil Co.

It said American gift dollars have continued to go to the Middle East country at a high rate even though her oil earnings started up again in 1954.

Iran, with a 1,000-mile border with Russia and an estimated 13 per cent of the world's oil reserves, is presumably one of the countries thought of in Eisenhower's plan to thwart any Soviet aggression in the Middle East.

Overseas, the administration's proposal for standby troop authority met a hostile reaction from sources in Syria, Egypt and Yugoslavia.

IN DAMASCUS, Ihsan El Jabri, chairman of the Syrian Parliament's Foreign Affairs Committee, called the plan "a plot engineered by the imperialists."

In Cairo, the newspaper Al Mesas published an article saying Eisenhower's request involves a method "rejected by all the peoples of the world."

In Belgrade, the Communist newspaper Borba said that by adopting the Eisenhower plan the United States would risk appearing in Arab eyes "as an heir to the colonial powers."

In Moscow, the Soviet government newspaper Izvestia charged the United States has "openly announced its intention to undermine United Nations efforts to restore peace and security in the Middle East."

An article written by the newspaper's New York correspondent said Eisenhower's proposed new Middle East policy would "rekindle the flames of war."

Blessed Events

Mr. and Mrs. William Voss, Williamsport, are announcing the birth of twin girls Thursday morning, in Memorial Hospital. The first infant arrived at 7:30 a. m. and weighed three pounds, fourteen and one-quarter ounces, and the second little girl arrived 7:38 a. m. weighing four pounds, ten and one-quarter ounces.

A son was born Thursday to Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hunt of Bloomington. The infant arrived 12:40 p. m. in Memorial Hospital and weighed eight pounds, three ounces.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter L. Hurd, Jeffersonville, are the parents of a seven pound, thirteen and one-half ounce daughter-Jana Lee, born at 5:47 p. m. Thursday in Greene Memorial Hospital, Xenia. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Lewis F. Hurd, Columbus, and Mr. Homer Johnson of Jackson.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Rinehart, Milledgeville, are the parents of a son born 5:02 a. m. Friday in Memorial Hospital and weighing six pounds, fourteen ounces.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Kelley, Route 2, Mt. Sterling, are announcing the birth of a daughter, 2:30 p. m. Thursday in Memorial Hospital weighing seven pounds, six ounces.

Reckless Driving Charge Dismissed

A charge of reckless operation against Roscoe Whiteside of Bloomington, was dismissed by Judge Max G. Dice in Municipal Court Friday morning. He pleaded not guilty at his arraignment and, after hearing the testimony, Judge Dice dismissed the case.

The charge was filed by Dolly Fitch, Washington C. H., after she said her car was crowded off Lewis Rd. and into a fence on the Jesse Hagler farm Jan. 2.

Deputy Sheriff Don Thompson testified in court that, in his opinion, Whiteside was in no way responsible for the accident.

This was the only case on the Municipal Court docket Friday.

'Mad Bomber' May Live in White Plains

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y. (AP)—New York City police are operating on the assumption that the "mad bomber" lives in this city 20 miles from Manhattan.

New York Deputy Inspector Frederick M. Lussen, who heads the police search for the "mad bomber," said Thursday the assumption was based in large part on plumbers' terms for the length of pipe used in the bombs.

Meanwhile, a rash of hoaxes continued in New York City as well as in other parts of the nation. And arrests for false bomb reports also continued to mount.

In New York City almost 200 bomb scares have been received since a live bomb, linked by police to the authentic "bomber" was found Dec. 24 in the New York Public Library. Another of his un-

Wheat Tax Entry

received for it when it was delivered to the CCC.

IT WAS against such a backdrop that many Fayette County farmers had not listed wheat disposed of to the CCC for personal property tax during the three years of 1953, 1954 and 1955.

Since the personal property tax is assessed under state law, the Ohio Department of Taxation sent representatives here in 1955 to make a check on wheat producers and ordered that they be billed for the tax if they had not paid it.

However, the only part the state Department of Taxation took in the injunction suit was as a friend of the court on the side of the defendants, Fabb and Allen.

Since the injunction was granted against the tax collection under state law, its effect is expected to be far reaching. Those who have followed "the developments of the legal tussle express the belief that cities such as Cincinnati and Toledo, where there are big terminal elevators for storage of grain, might try to upset the injunction because it is a source of revenue for them. Conversely, the agricultural counties, where wheat is produced, and those in which there are no storage facilities are expected to applaud the court ruling.

INDICATIONS are that efforts will be made to amend the personal property tax law in the next session of the State Legislature. Counties in which there are no big grain terminal elevators and the rural areas of the state are expected to get behind any changes to repeal the tax on stored grain.

Rep. Virgil Pervill of Fayette County, chairman of the House Agriculture Committee, has opposed the tax and Gov.-elect C. William O'Neill said when he was here during the campaign that he would "recommend that the law be amended to eliminate this inequity."

Both the Fayette County and Ohio Farm Bureaus have opposed the tax and joined in the legal battle that eventually led to the injunction in Fayette County.

HOW MUCH the stored wheat tax would amount to in Fayette County is uncertain. Treasurer Fabb said "there is no way of knowing what it would be because we don't know where it is stored or the tax rates of the districts where it is held."

Some wheat growers have paid

Okinawans Protest U. S. Land Use

NAHA, Okinawa (P)—The United States said today it will not try to take title to Okinawan lands the Americans use for military bases. Substantially more money also was promised for the U. S.-leased land.

The land issue has aggravated anti-American sentiment on this densely populated 462-square-mile island. Okinawans resent the fact that the U. S. military has taken over 40,000 acres and announced it will need 12,000 more. There are only 80,000 arable acres out of the island's total 296,206. The Americans are using 16,000 tillable acres and expect to take 3,000 more.

Good Hope Grange Makes Plans for Town, Country Meet

Plans for a town and country meeting were discussed at this week's meeting of the Good Hope Grange. This discussion was in connection with a proposal that has been gaining momentum through the county recently.

At the business meeting conducted by Glen Whittington, plans were made to serve lunch at the Emmit Dewey farm sale Jan. 17, and a $5 contribution to the Mental Health Assn. was authorized.

Lewis D. Clark was welcomed as a new member.

Mrs. Everett Rife, the lecturer, introduced Sam Day, who showed slides of pictures taken on his trip through Louisiana, Texas, California, Idaho, Nebraska and Kansas.

He described each of the scenes in detail during his running commentary.

During the penny march, each member received the new password.

Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Roy Garrison, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Britton and Mrs. and Mrs. Elmer Huchison.

Wheat Tax Entry

received for it when it was delivered to the CCC.

IT WAS against such a backdrop that many Fayette County farmers had not listed wheat disposed of to the CCC for personal property tax during the three years of 1953, 1954 and 1955.

Since the personal property tax is assessed under state law, the Ohio Department of Taxation sent representatives here in 1955 to make a check on wheat producers and ordered that they be billed for the tax if they had not paid it.

However, the only part the state Department of Taxation took in the injunction suit was as a friend of the court on the side of the defendants, Fabb and Allen.

Since the injunction was granted against the tax collection under state law, its effect is expected to be far reaching. Those who have followed "the developments of the legal tussle express the belief that cities such as Cincinnati and Toledo, where there are big terminal elevators for storage of grain, might try to upset the injunction because it is a source of revenue for them. Conversely, the agricultural counties, where wheat is produced, and those in which there are no storage facilities are expected to applaud the court ruling.

INDICATIONS are that efforts will be made to amend the personal property tax law in the next session of the State Legislature. Counties in which there are no big grain terminal elevators and the rural areas of the state are expected to get behind any changes to repeal the tax on stored grain.

Rep. Virgil Percivall of Fayette County, chairman of the House Agriculture Committee, has opposed the tax and Gov. elect C. William O'Neill said when he was here during the campaign that he would "recommend that the law be amended to eliminate this inequity."

Both the Fayette County and Ohio Farm Bureaus have opposed the tax and joined in the legal battle that eventually led to the injunction in Fayette County.

IT'S SO EASY TO PLACE A WANT AD.

HOW MUCH the stored wheat tax would amount to in Fayette County is uncertain. Treasurer Fabb said "there is no way of knowing what it would be because we don't know where it is stored or the tax rates of the districts where it is held."

Okinawans Protest U. S. Land Use

NAHA, Okinawa (U-S) — The United States said today it will not try to take title to Okinawan lands the Americans use for military bases. Substantially more money also was promised for the U. S.-leased land.

The land issue has aggravated anti-American sentiment on this densely populated 462-square-mile island. Okinawans resent the fact that the U. S. military has taken over 40,000 acres and announced it will need 12,000 more. There are only 80,000 arable acres out of the island's total 296,206. The Americans are using 16,000 tillable acres and expect to take 3,000 more.

Our State Is Looking Ahead with Confidence

There are many indications that the state of Ohio will be right near the top in business and growth through 1957.

While there are many reports from reliable financial experts that American business men and many home-buyers will find the money market "tight" and will have more difficulties than in past years in seeking to borrow money there is a feeling of confidence everywhere being expressed that this is no cause for alarm, but is really a healthy condition working toward keeping down further inflation.

The recent report from the U. S. Department of Labor shows that there are nine major industrial centers in Ohio which are showing some shortages in labor and there is a special demand for men and women possessing skills in machine work.

There can be little doubt about the exceptional postwar heavy industry growth in this state. Now this condition appears to be branching out and reaching into other fields.

Other federal government reports, especially one from the U. S. Census Bureau shows Ohio to be one of 19 states in which the population has grown faster in the last five to six years, than the national average.

The fact is that the Great Lakes community generally has shot ahead in population since the Korean War began. The Census Bureau estimates that there are 9,096,000 Ohioans today a million or so more than in 1950. Only 11 other states have had larger increases percentage-wise, and several of these—e.g., Arizona and Nevada—are not in the top ranks.

Government reports provide evidence for gauging Buckeye growth. Each year new records are set in material wealth, and in population strides. And at this particular time of year, when we take stock of our assets and predict future developments, it seems Ohioans are extraordinarily well situated. The promise for 1957 is bright.

As to the "tight" money situation, financial observers see nothing ahead to worry about unless some totally unexpected emergency should appear.

It seems reasonable to believe that it is better that America's banking authorities should have too many customers than too few. The fact that industries as well as individuals are anxious to press ahead, willing to borrow heavily against future earnings, indicates general optimism and confidence. It indicates, further, that tomorrow's good times are vouchsafed by today's energetic and restless drive to cross new economic horizons.

We have only one thing we must watch; we must not go "overboard" in our enthusiasm. We must use sound judgement in how far we may safely go.

Many, Memory Millionaires

By Hal Boyle

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Florida today is one of the states enjoying a boomlet on top of the general American boom.

It is growing so fast they may soon have to pave the everglades and turn them into a parking lot.

You can always tell when times are good here where every other resident seems to be in the real estate business, at least on a parttime basis. The natives quit swapping land back and forth for practice and get busy selling it to new settlers.

Actually, however, they seem to go through the tortures of the damned when they do finally part with a parcel of property they have held for any length of time. As one man put it:

"You hate to let go of something when you feel that if you just hold it for another 5 or 10 years you will get maybe triple the present price."

Tourists are now streaming in at the rate of 10,000 a day, and various sources estimate that between 3,000 and 4,000 new families are settling permanently in the state each month.

This accounts for the present Florida version of the Oklahoma land rush.

The phrase you hear most often is "If I only had . . ." It expresses someone's regret over being asleep when opportunity hammered on the door like thunder, then passed on, perhaps never to return.

This is the usual version: "I came here 20 years ago and wasteland in the Florida Keys was selling for two bits an acre. If I'd only had $5,000 then and bought up some of that acreage, I'd be worth better than a million bucks today."

Florida is full of millionaires, some retired, many still active. But for every real millionaire, it has a dozen "memory millionaires," the men who mourn "If I only had . . ."

Northerners who have the idea of finding peace and plenty by buying a small Florida fruit or vegetable farm were warned in a recent newspaper editorial here that the hazards are high in such small-scale ventures.

Farming and fruit raising have become big business here, following the same trend of such operations in most states and Florida raises more than enough vegetables to supply its markets.

If a man seeks independence on five acres here, the best crop he can plant for a quick profit seems to be a housing project or some apartment houses.

The West vs. Communism

By George Sokolsky

There are always men of good will who believe, despite the facts of life, that a compromise is usually attainable if those who differ talk things over.

The error undoubtedly is that those who adhere to principle without regard to consequences do not wish a compromise but are ambitious only to achieve their ends. President Eisenhower is beyond question a man of good will but when he expects unselfish responses from Nehru, Tito, Nasser and Chou En-lai, he is moving into a league which he cannot even believe exists.

Chou En-lai's immediate response to Eisenhower's conversations with Nehru displays the cloven hoof of the devil.

Galeatus (pseudonym), writing in the "Free World Review," makes an interesting contrast between Western society and the Communist state which shows how irreconcilable these two systems are. Correctly he places religion as the first and sharpest difference and although I think he minimizes somewhat the position of Christianity in Western society, he nevertheless recognizes the trend toward secularism in the West which has not yet been arrested although it is diminishing in some areas. Here with his contrast:

"WESTERN SOCIETY
"Agnostic attitude toward God. (Science is based on the supposition of a material universe). Educationist and sociological views point to a thoroughly secularized state, with religion confined to the private sphere. Tendencies to exclude denominational teaching from schools. 'Scientific' tendencies to do away with the ethical system of Christianity. (Ethics treated in an utilitarian manner). — Nietzsche. — Freud. Christianity accused of repressing natural instincts. Introduction of 'progressive education'."

"COMMUNIST STATE
"There is no God. There should be no churches. Order maintained by the state only."

It is really over this contrast that both the Polish and Hungarian revolts occurred, although they play no part in the Titoization of the American Communist party which is moved by other forces. In both Poland and Hungary, Roman Catholicism reasserted itself and in both countries a Cardinal of the Roman Catholic Church became the symbol of freedom. The singing of "Stille Nacht, Heilige Nacht," by the Communist radio in Hungary established that even the atheistic Communists had to recognize that a new day had dawned.

In the United States where religious non-conformity is so fashionable that there are hundreds of religious sects, it is difficult to recognize that the struggle against communism in Europe must be premised on religious organization because the first target for destruction in each Communist country is religious organization.

Khrushchev's complaint that wherever Jews go, they organize synagogues is altogether realistic from a Communist standpoint.

The Jew is essentially a religious person who traditionally, when 10 of them find themselves anywhere, form a synagogue even in a hovel, and do so under Communist rule.

What Khrushchev dares not face is the fact that Catholics and Protestants do the same and therefore the monolithic society which he and Lenin and Stalin believed they had established, never really came into existence. By a monolithic society, they mean one in which everybody believes the same things to be true, where the mind and spirit of man are regimented like toy dolls made to dance to Tchaikovsky's "Nutcracker Suite" without life, without animation, but never out of step.

It has not happened because the human mind does not submit for long to that type of direction. Most significantly, all the current uprisings in Europe are started by students, by teenagers who reject fear as they reject a regimented life.

And significantly while parents compromise to protect the lives of their children, teenagers court death to restore liberty. (Copyright, 1957, King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

Appendicitis Signs Can Be Recognized

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN
Virtually all of us suffer from pains or cramps in the abdomen once in a while.

Although they cause some discomfort at the time, most such pains are only temporary and are relatively unimportant.

Yet, every time a stomach pain occurs I'll bet the majority of you have at least a fleeting thought about appendicitis. And well you might, for any pain that persists might well signal the beginning of this disease.

Recognize Symptoms

While I don't want you diagnosing your own illnesses—that's a job for your doctor—I do want you to be able to recognize symptoms of appendicitis so that you can call your physician promptly.

In most cases of appendicitis, the pain begins very suddenly. Usually it is a general pain over your entire abdomen. Initially, it is not generally confined to the right lower portion of the abdomen as is popularly believed.

As a rule it's mild at first, although in some cases it is very severe even at the beginning. After a while it may disappear, leading you to think it has subsided completely.

Increased Pain

You'll soon realize your mistake when the cramp returns again and again, increasing in intensity each time.

Before long the pain will become localized. First it is centered at the umbilicus and later in the lower right portion of the abdomen.

Soon the muscles covering the appendix become extremely sore.

The course of your life should proceed happily along the even tenor of its way. Domestic bliss is also foreseen. For today's child a good, affectionate disposition, faithful and reliable, with a strong sense of duty, is indicated.

Soon the muscles covering the appendix become extremely sore.

A pretty positive indication of appendicitis is what we call rebound tenderness.

Applying Pressure

Placing your hand on your abdomen and applying pressure might tend to ease the pain somewhat. If there is a sharp grabbing pain upon releasing that pressure, it's generally a confirmation of appendicitis.

Either diarrhea or constipation may accompany an attack of appendicitis. A victim may or may not be nauseated, but he won't feel much like eating.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

Answer: Night cramps usually can be controlled very well by the use of quinine. However, this drug should be taken only under the direction of a physician.

Just before being sworn in Thursday as Ohio's junior senator, he was asked how he felt about switching from governor to Senator. He said:

"I am beset with mixed emotions. However, I have no hesitation in saying I would rather be governor of Ohio than senator of the United States."

You Need The Church-The Church Needs You

It Looks to GOD

Have you watched the face of the sunflower? It follows the sun all day so it will not lose one single ray...it looks to God, do you?
For such devotion the creative power of the sun blesses it with a tall, strong, sturdy stalk, with abundant beauty and fertility. Oh, that we could thus bask in the sunshine of God's grace and goodness!
The ordinary might then take on radiant meaning if we would but turn our eyes toward Him. Going to church would be much easier if all week long we would realize our kinship to deity.
The sunflower is a symbol of the rich harvest that fills the grainaries for bird and beast. But a place in Heaven awaits those who lose themselves in good service...those who keep their eyes fixed on God.

Faganeu returned to his native Romania from East Liverpool. He explained in his letter that he was jailed in 1949 for alleged disrespect for local authorities. He escaped two years later and landed in Yugoslavia by mistake while trying to make his way to Italy by boat. He arrived in Italy two years ago and is in a refugee camp near Rome.

He told the mayor that $1.80 may not amount to much in the United States, but it is equal to 1,000 lire in Italy, where he said the unemployment situation is worse than it was in this country during the depression years.

East Liverpool Officials To Assist Refugee Camper

EAST LIVERPOOL, Ohio (AP)—A former East Liverpool man who now is in a refugee camp in Italy has asked Mayor Arnold W. Devon to send him $1.80 which he says the city owes him for shoveling snow from the streets in 1933.

Joseph Faganeu told the mayor in a letter that he would use the money to buy an English dictionary so his son could study the language while waiting to get on the immigration quota for entry into the United States.

Mayor Devon said Faganeu would get his money "with interest." He said as soon as news of the letter spread through city hall today, employees in the various offices started taking a collection for Faganeu and that more than $20 was contributed within a few hours. The mayor said he personally would send Faganeu the dictionary for his son.

Faganeu returned to his native Romania from East Liverpool. He explained in his letter that he was jailed in 1949 for alleged disrespect for local authorities. He escaped two years later and landed in Yugoslavia by mistake while trying to make his way to Italy by boat. He arrived in Italy two years ago and is in a refugee camp near Rome.

He told the mayor that $1.80 may not amount to much in the United States, but it is equal to 1,000 lire in Italy, where he said the unemployment situation is worse than it was in this country during the depression years.

Faganeu said he had been "kicking around Europe" mostly as a political refugee for the last 23 years and had been shoveling snow without pay for various city governments.

Ohio Artist's Work Displayed

CLEVELAND (AP)—An exhibition of 80 drawings and water color paintings by Charles Burchfield, artist who was born in Salem, Ohio, opened today at the Cleveland Museum of Art. The show, which covers four decades of Burchfield's work, was organized by the Whitney Museum of American Art, New York.

Cain, a Republican, home for the holidays, said, "I'm still very much in the organization." The report probably arose, he said, because he did not return to Dayton after the holidays.

The former senator and member of the Subversive Activities Control Board would neither confirm nor deny reports of his re-entering politics.

West Point is the oldest engineering school and the oldest permanent military post in the nation.

East Liverpool Officials
To Assist Refugee Camper

EAST LIVERPOOL, Ohio (AP)—
A former East Liverpool man who now is in a refugee camp in Italy has asked Mayor Arnold W.
Devon to send him $1.80 which he says the city owes him for shoveling snow from the streets in 1933.

Joseph Faganeu told the mayor in a letter that he would use the money to buy an English dictionary so his son could study the language while waiting to get on the immigration quota for entry into the United States.

Mayor Devon said Faganeu would get his money "with interest." He said as soon as news of the letter spread through city hall today, employees in the various offices started taking a collection for Faganeu and that more than $20 was contributed within a few hours. The mayor said he personally would send Faganeu the dictionary for his son.

Faganeu returned to his native
Romania from East Liverpool. He explained in his letter that he was jailed in 1949 for alleged disrespect for local authorities. He escaped two years later and landed in Yugoslavia by mistake while trying to make his way to Italy by boat. He arrived in Italy two years ago and is in a refugee camp near Rome.

He told the mayor that $1.80 may not amount to much in the United States, but it is equal to 1,000 lire in Italy, where he said the unemployment situation is worse than it was in this country during the depression years.

Cain Denies Ending
Position in Dayton

TACOMA, Wash. (AP)—Former
U. S. Sen. Harry P. Cain denied
Thursday reports he had quit a real estate job in Dayton, Ohio, to re-enter politics.

A spokesman for the Leon A. K-erman organization said Cain had withdrawn from the Dayton office and returned to his home state of Washington.

Cain, a Republican, home for the holidays, said, "I'm still very much in the organization." The report probably arose, he said, because he did not return to Dayton after the holidays.

The former senator and member of the Subversive Activities Control Board would neither confirm nor deny reports of his re-entering politics.

West Point is the oldest engineer-

Fullmer OKs Return Bout For Robinson

Mid-March Date Set For Duel if Sugar Man Wants To Try

NEW YORK (AP)—A return bout between newly crowned middleweight champion Gene Fullmer and dethroned Ray Robinson was just about set today for New York in Mid-March.

Fullmer okayed the second fight, promoter Jim Norris wants it, and there was every indication the 36-year-old Robinson would officially say yes this afternoon.

Robinson lost his title on a unanimous 15-round decision at Madison Square Garden Wednesday night.

George Gainford, "chief adviser" in the Robinson camp, said the Sugar Man had told him he wanted the rematch at the earliest possible date.

Robinson himself indicated after his losing effort he was eager for the chance to win the title for the fourth time as well as to earn another big payday. He collected $138,190 while Fullmer received only $20,915. For the return each will get 30 per cent.

Norris said about 5,000 fans had been turned away in a surprise sellout Wednesday. The fight lured 18,134 cash customers and grossed $94,645. The radio and television receipts were $100,000, even though New York and Philadelphia were blacked out.

"We could draw between $250,000 and $275,000 for the return at the Garden in the middle of March if we have another local blackout of TV," said Norris. "That, however, is up to the sponsors."

"We're ready," said Fullmer's manager Marv Jensen. "We want the big money now."

Gainford, meanwhile, let loose another blast at Fullmer for "illegal punching" and at referee Ruby Goldstein's officiating.

Big George claimed again Fullmer hit low, dropped Robinson with a "half butt and push," used rabbit punches (blows to the back of the neck) and rubbed the laces of his gloves against Robinson's face.

Fullmer flatly denied the charges. He said he hit Robinson mostly on the side of the head and ears when Sugar Ray tried to tie him up inside.

Goldstein backed up Fullmer. "There were no rabbit punches," said the referee. "Fullmer might have hit him on the side of the head but that was because Robinson was holding him and ducking his head to avoid Fullmer's punches. Fullmer was just too strong for Robinson. He's not the Robinson of old. He and Benny Leonard were the greatest fighters I've ever seen but Wednesday it was an older Robinson."

Fullmer, meanwhile, prepared to cash in with appearances on network television shows over the weekend. He will enplane to Salt Lake City Monday enroute to his West Jordan, Utah, home.

Chestnut Slated To Test Martinez

WASHINGTON (AP)—Featherweight contender Ike Chestnut planned anything but a cordial welcome tonight for Isidro Martinez of Panama, who came north to seek fame and Yankee dollars.

The two meet in a 10-round nationally televised bout at Capitol Arena, where Chestnut won friends in two previous appearances.

Dayton Flyers Only Average This Season

CHICAGO (AP)—This looks like one season Dayton Coach Tommy Blackburn isn't going to pull a rabbit out of the hat.

In the past he has shrugged off all graduation losses and with some rebuilding magic has managed to keep the Flyers among the giants in college basketball. He has a .732 winning percentage in a decade at Dayton. His only losing year was his first (12-14).

But with big Bill Uhl, Ray Dieringer and Jimmy Paxson gone from last season's NIT runnerup squad, this figured to be Blackburn's toughest season. And that's what it looks to be. Even early victims won't stay dead.

Duquesne, another fallen giant, took an 88-45 thumping from the Flyers in the Blue Grass Tournament at Louisville last week, but Thursday night the Dukes up and bopped the Flyers 79-71. Duquesne, led by Dave Ricketts' 23 points, took a 33-24 lead at the half and never trailed as Dayton's record sank to 5-6.

It was one of a number of surprises Thursday night. Xavier of Ohio upset Western Kentucky, ranked 14th in this week's Associated Press poll, 87-79; Utah State rocked Utah 68-64 in overtime; and Bradley battered St. John's of Brooklyn 97-78.

Senior Bowl Coaches Select Lineups for Saturday Duel

MOBILE, Ala. (AP)—Opposing Senior Bowl coaches today named their offensive lineups for Saturday's game. They also announced rugged defensive units designed to stop the high-powered scoring machines.

Experts rated the North and South squads about even and shied away from picking a favorite.

Coach Kuharich's Yankees, with Purdue's Len Dawson doing the tossing, are expected to go to the air more than the rebels. Kuharich, Washington Redskins coach, will use bruising fullback John Bayuk of Colorado to keep the South's defense honest.

Flanking Bayuk will be halfbacks Terry Barr of Michigan and Jim Podoley of Central Michigan. With breakaway runners Del Shofner of Baylor and George Volkert of Georgia Tech at halfback, the South will probably do more running, although quarterback Charley Curtis of Texas Christian will do his share of passing.

Coach Paul Brown of the Cleveland Browns installed All American Don Bozzeler of Miami (Fla.) at fullback.

Kuharich has Brad Bomba of Indiana and Bob Kheonle of Purdue at ends; Bob Pollack of Pittsburgh and Bill Underdonk of West Virginia, at tackles; Don Gilkey of the University of California and Ed Voytek of Purdue at guards; and Joe Amstutz of Indiana at center.

The South will run behind Jack Johnson of Miami (Fla.), and Buddy Cruze of Tennessee, ends.

Dayton Flyers Only Average This Season

CHICAGO (AP)—This looks like one season Dayton Coach Tommy Blackburn isn't going to pull a rabbit out of the hat.

In the past he has shrugged off all graduation losses and with some rebuilding magic has managed to keep the Flyers among the giants in college basketball. He has a .732 winning percentage in a decade at Dayton. His only losing year was his first (12-14).

But with big Bill Uhl, Ray Dieringer and Jimmy Paxson gone from last season's NIT runnerup squad, this figured to be Blackburn's toughest season. And that's what it looks to be. Even early victims won't stay dead.

Duquesne, another fallen giant, took an 88-45 thumping from the Flyers in the Blue Grass Tournament at Louisville last week, but Thursday night the Dukes up and bopped the Flyers 79-71. Duquesne, led by Dave Ricketts' 23 points, took a 33-24 lead at the half and never trailed as Dayton's record sank to 5-6.

It was one of a number of surprises Thursday night. Xavier of Ohio upset Western Kentucky, ranked 14th in this week's Associated Press poll, 87-79; Utah State rocked Utah 68-64 in overtime; and Bradley battered St. John's of Brooklyn 97-78.

Round about Fayette County

By B. E. KELLEY

What a big lift those parking meters give toward helping defray the city's ever mounting expenses!

And at the same time, what a big accommodation it is to motor vehicle drivers to be able to park somewhere near their objective most of the time while in the up-town area.

Last year the 509 parking meters now in use in the city brought in a total of $42,017.50, compared with $41,951.80 the previous year.

While a large portion of the income from meters came from residents within 25 miles of Washington C. H., much of it came from residents throughout the nation who had occasion to stop here for various reasons, so that the full bill is ly no means paid by motor vehicle owners of the immediate community.

THOSE WILD GEESSE

Apparently that big flock of wild geese which was seen over Rattlesnake Creek, near Glendon Saturday, lingered to dine on Fayette County corn and other food, for they were still in western Fayette County as late as Monday evening.

In fact a small flock came to earth on a farm on Plymouth Rd. Saturday afternoon.

Monday afternoon several flocks, which probably had formerly been in the one big flock, were seen flying westward over Jasper Township.

Presence of the large number of wild geese in this area has given rise to a belief that the birds are migrating northward, but had halted here until the present cold weather is over.

I am reminded that more than 45 years ago a flock of approximately 100 geese spent entire winters in the eastern part of the county, much of the time on the then Humphrey Jones land on Robinson Rd.

The former local attorney was a feeding a large number of cattle on his farm, with headquarters in the "round barn" which was a feature of the Jones farm, having been built in a semi-circle and forming an ideal feeding place.

The geese fed about the barn, but eluded every effort of gunmen to get near enough to them to bring any of them down.

Day and night hunters sought to slip up within shooting distance, but apparently one wary old gander always saw them, and with a warning note took to the air, followed instantly by the entire flock.

The big birds found ample water along Compton Creek, and remained here throughout the winter, returning year after year for a number of years because they found plenty of food, even if the below-zero weather and heavy snows did make life decidedly uncomfortable for them part of the time.

SURE STREET SAVER

I have noted with interest the widespread "calking" or filling of fissures in the blacktop streets with liquid asphalt during the cold, fair weather. It is a means of saving the paving and keeping the streets in good repair for many years.

For weeks, as the street crew could do the work and as weather and material permitted, the patching crew under the supervision of Clyde Smith, has been busy applying asphalt to the cracks which, during cold weather, expand to the limit as the pavement contracts. When warmer weather brings about expansion of the paving, the fissures will be filled with the seal coat of asphalt, and no water can enter the former fissures to destroy the paving during freezing and thawing.

In former years the hot asphalt was applied in warmer weather, but it was found by City Manager James F. Parkinson, who is an expert highway engineer, that when cold weather came and the paving contracted, the asphalt did not completely fill the fissures.

The simple plan of applying the asphalt to the cracks in the street at the right time, will ultimately save the city tens of thousands of dollars in paving costs.

WHEN DEATH STRUCK

Some local residents recall when Greenfield was struck by a widespread outbreak of "black diptheria" some 67 years ago. It caused dozens of deaths within a short time, taking as many as five children from a single family, and resulting in suspension of school, closing of business places part of the time and a bar on all funerals.

A fog of sulphur smoke hung over the town for days as sulphur was burned in homes, places of business, and even in the streets upon orders of Dr. William Wilson and other physicians of the time.

People were ordered to stay in their homes unless their presence elsewhere was absolutely necessary, and windows were crowded with tear-stained and frightened faces as little caskets were taken in carriages to the old cemetery in the eastern part of the town. A few people walked in the zero weather, trailing the carriages or other conveyances to the cemetery. Only graveside rites were conducted, and the number of children succumbing to the disease struck terror to the hearts of everyone. Many adults also died during the plague.

Rund about Fayette County

By B. E. KELLEY

What a big lift those parking meters give toward helping defray the city's ever mounting expenses!

And at the same time, what a big accommodation it is to motor vehicle drivers to be able to park somewhere near their objective most of the time while in the up-town area.

Last year the 509 parking meters now in use in the city brought in a total of $42,017.50, compared with $41,951.80 the previous year.

While a large portion of the income from meters came from residents within 25 miles of Washington C. H., much of it came from residents throughout the nation who had occasion to stop here for various reasons, so that the full bill is ly no means paid by motor vehicle owners of the immediate community.

THOSE WILD GEESSE

Apparently that big flock of wild geese which was seen over Rattlesnake Creek, near Glendon Saturday, lingered to dine on Fayette County corn and other food, for they were still in western Fayette County as late as Monday evening.

In fact a small flock came to earth on a farm on Plymouth Rd. Saturday afternoon.

Monday afternoon several flocks, which probably had formerly been in the one big flock, were seen flying westward over Jasper Township.

Presence of the large number of wild geese in this area has given rise to a belief that the birds are migrating northward, but had halted here until the present cold weather is over.

I am reminded that more than 45 years ago a flock of approximately 100 geese spent entire winters in the eastern part of the county, much of the time on the then Humphrey Jones land on Robinson Rd.

The former local attorney was feeding a large number of cattle on his farm, with headquarters in the "round barn" which was a feature of the Jones farm, having been built in a semi-circle and forming an ideal feeding place.

The geese fed about the barn, but eluded every effort of gunmen to get near enough to them to bring any of them down.

Day and night hunters sought to slip up within shooting distance, but apparently one wary old gander always saw them, and with a warning note took to the air, followed instantly by the entire flock.

The big birds found ample water along Compton Creek, and remained here throughout the winter, returning year after year for a number of years because they found plenty of food, even if the below-zero weather and heavy snows did make life decidedly uncomfortable for them part of the time.

SURE STREET SAVER

I have noted with interest the widespread "calking" or filling of fissures in the blacktop streets with liquid asphalt during the cold, fair weather. It is a means of saving the paving and keeping the streets in good repair for many years.

For weeks, as the street crew could do the work and as weather and material permitted, the patching crew under the supervision of Clyde Smith, has been busy applying asphalt to the cracks which, during cold weather, expand to the limit as the pavement contracts.

When warmer weather brings about expansion of the paving, the fissures will be filled with the seal coat of asphalt, and no water can enter the former fissures to destroy the paving during freezing and thawing.

In former years the hot asphalt was applied in warmer weather, but it was found by City Manager James F. Parkinson, who is an expert highway engineer, that when cold weather came and the paving contracted, the asphalt did not completely fill the fissures.

The simple plan of applying the asphalt to the cracks in the street at the right time, will ultimately save the city tens of thousands of dollars in paving costs.

WHEN DEATH STRUCK

Some local residents recall when Greenfield was struck by a widespread outbreak of "black diptheria" some 67 years ago. It caused dozens of deaths within a short time, taking as many as five children from a single family, and resulting in suspension of school, closing of business places part of the time and a bar on all funerals.

A fog of sulphur smoke hung over the town for days as sulphur was burned in homes, places of business, and even in the streets under orders of Dr. William Wilson and other physicians of the time.

People were ordered to stay in their homes unless their presence elsewhere was absolutely necessary, and windows were crowded with tear-stained and frightened faces as little caskets were taken in carriages to the old cemetery in the eastern part of the town.

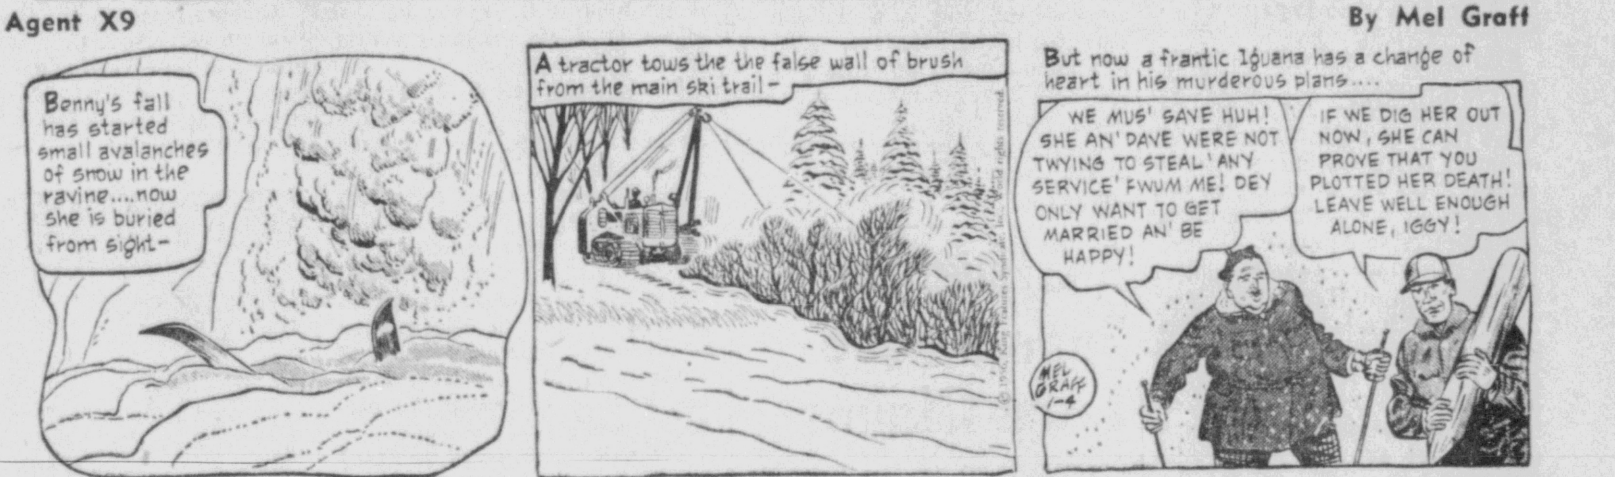

A few people walked in the zero weather, trailing the carriages or other conveyances to the cemetery. Only graveside rites were conducted, and the number of children succumbing to the disease struck terror to the hearts of everyone. Many adults also died during the plague.

GOP Leaders Hold Off on Endorsements

Action May Follow Inaugural Rites For New Governor

The political pot will be boiling overtime during the next two weeks, especially after Jan. 14 when Gov.-elect C. William O'Neill assumes office and many changes among state appointees in various branches of the state government are expected to be made.

The Fayette County Republican Central Committee, of which Sheriff Orland Hays is chairman, is to hold a meeting here sometime within a few days after the inauguration of Gov. O'Neill, and then make such endorsements for state positions of applicants from this county who in the committee believes may have a chance for appointments in the new state administration.

According to Hays it is regarded by local Republican leaders as a better policy to wait until the committee learns what openings are likely to be available before acting on any applications which may be filed.

THE LOCAL committee expects to be well represented at the various ceremonies attending and immediately after the inauguration. It has arranged for a suite of hotel rooms on inauguration day for use of committeemen and friends from this county.

There will be conferences by committee officials with various Republican state officials, and from these conferences, it will be determined what action the committee should take during the following week.

Portsmouth Phone Lines Being Repaired

PORTSMOUTH — The struck Ohio Consolidated Telephone Co. continued repair work today on slashed cables which disrupted service to more than 1,000 subscribers in the Portsmouth area Wednesday night.

There were no new acts of vandalism reported in the long and bitter dispute between the company and the Communications Workers of America.

The striking CWA has denied any responsibility for the cable cuttings and other acts of vandalism.

A company spokesman said service to three Portsmouth hospitals was still out but the state highway patrol had its phones working again.

Negotiations to replace a contract which expired July 15 will resume in Columbus Tuesday. Retention of the union shop, arbitration and classification of certain supervisory positions are major issues blocking settlement.

Meanwhile, a National Labor Relations Board hearing will resume here Monday. The company has filed unfair labor practice charges against the union.

Dell Gets Post On Liquor Board

COLUMBUS — State Sen Edward H. Dell (D-Butler), Thursday received appointment to the state liquor board from outgoing Gov. Frank J. Lausche.

Dell, a Middletown attorney, fills the vacancy created by the resignation of Frank M. Krebs of Dayton to become clerk of the Montgomery County common pleas court.

Dell will serve until Feb. 4, 1957. The governor also announced the reappointment of Zoyd M. Flader to another one-year term as director of public works.

3 Cleveland Papers Face Trust Claims

CLEVELAND — An investigation into possible violation of federal anti-trust laws in the shutdown last November of Cleveland's three major daily newspapers was called for Thursday night by the Cleveland Newspaper Guild.

The members of Guild Local 1 voted unanimously to ask its parent union, the American Newspaper Guild, "to initiate appropriate action in Congress to cause an investigation of the antitrust aspects of the newspaper lockout in Cleveland in November, 1956."

The guild struck the Cleveland Press, published by Scripps-Howard, on Nov. 1 in a dispute over a new contract. Forest City Publishing Co. then suspended publication of its two papers—the Plain Dealer and the News—when truck drivers refused to handle editions bearing the name of the Press along with the names of the Forest City papers.

Contract agreements between the guild and all three papers were reached Nov. 16, but the publishers said the offers accepted by the guild were contingent upon a settlement being reached between the publishers and all the union involved in the production of the newspapers.

Publication was not resumed until Nov. 26, after new contracts were worked out with the craft unions.

Both publishing firms denied there was any lockout.

Jefferson County Phone Probe Set

COLUMBUS — The state utilities commission will hold a public hearing in Steubenville Feb. 19, to investigate the quality of Ohio Consolidated Telephone Co. service in parts of Jefferson County.

The company has been struck since July 15, 1956, by the Communications Workers of America. More than 100 subscribers living in seven small towns in Jefferson County last November petitioned the commission for a hearing and claimed service was "far below minimum standards."

Swine Banquet Plans Yet To Be Announced

The annual meeting of the Fayette County Swine Breeders and Feeders Assn. was confused with the annual swine banquet in a story carried in the Record-Herald yesterday.

The association's annual meeting will be held Jan. 14, but plans for the banquet have not yet been announced.

Arrangements for the annual meeting were made this week, with Robert Snyder of Clinton County as a guest at the planning session.

No Volunteers For CD Rescue Crew Positions

Not a single volunteer for a proposed county Civil Defense rescue crew showed up Thursday night for a scheduled organizational meeting, and George Montgomery, CD chief of rescue, warned today that the chance of getting a rescue truck stationed in Washington C. H. will be lost unless 20 people volunteer within 30 days to man it.

Montgomery said he is arranging to have the CD truck now based in Wilmington brought here for display Jan. 26. The unit, equipped with rescue tools and first aid supplies to combat disasters, will be on exhibit from 2 to 8 p. m. near the Courthouse.

If a volunteer crew can be organized by Feb. 2, Montgomery added, state CD headquarters will name a captain and team leaders, uniform and equip the personnel, and supply the truck.

The unit which would be based locally is one which was allocated to Hillsboro, then lost when that city did not provide a full crew of volunteers.

Supply Ship Finally Freed From Ice Pack

McMURDO SOUND, Antarctica — The crew of an Operation Deep Freeze supply ship made emergency repairs today in the shelter of an A tatic cape after fighting their 7,400-ton vessel free from a crushing ice pack.

The captain of the U. S. Navy freighter Arneb messaged that his craft had reached the safety of Cape Hallett. Work was started to patch a gaping hole above the waterline and cracks in the hull inflamed by the blows of monster wind-driven ice floes.

Capt. Nels C. Johnson, of Alexandria, Va., reported by radio that ice pressure had damaged both sides of the hull along the full length of the ship but that flooding was under control. One of the Arneb's two propellers also was damaged.

Johnson said there were no injuries to crew members and no loss of cargo. The Arneb carries about 200 men.

The 450-foot Arneb, an attack cargo vessel specially fitted for Antarctic duty, was pinned against the coast of Antarctica's Ross Ice Shelf New Year's Day.

The Northwind, one of the U. S. Coast Guard's most powerful icebreakers, smashed through the heavy ice to aid the stricken freighter. Pumps of both vessels were used to keep the Arneb from flooding while crewmen worked to shift cargo and shore up the damaged sides of the hull.

Miami Pondering Segregation Rule

MIAMI, Fla. — The city of Miami, faced with the ruling of a federal judge that its bus segregation laws and those of the entire state are unconstitutional, set the city attorney to work today studying the next move.

The city attorney, George S. S. Okell, said that if he "decided it's a waste of time" he won't file any answer.

The ruling, made by Judge Emmett Choate Thursday apparently caught everyone off guard. It came during what is ordinarily prehearing maneuvering in such cases. It was not immediately clear whether any state laws were invalidated.

Police Probe New Vandalism Reports

Rock throwing and glass breaking has cropped up again to plague police here.

Two reports of vandalism were made Friday morning.

Mrs. Hugh Overman said a rock had been hurled through the picture window of her home, 313 Fifth St., with such force that it went clear across the room and hit a cupboard, breaking out the glass in it as well as breaking some of the dishes inside. She told police she heard a noise around midnight, but that no one in the house got up to investigate at that time and the broken window and other damage was not discovered until morning.

Chief Phillip G. Lee, Navy recruiter here, reported glass in both doors on the left side of his 1954 Oldsmobile was shattered while the car was parked at the curb at his home, 314 Forest St., during the night. He said the windshield also was cracked.

Police are investigating both cases of vandalism, the first reported in several days.

Poland Aid Seen

WASHINGTON — The Eisenhower administration was reported ready today to let Communist Poland buy surplus U. S. farm goods with dollars at world market prices. U. S. prices are generally higher than world market prices.

Ohio Solon Opens Fight To Aid GIs

WASHINGTON — Rep. Frank Bow (R-Ohio) today renewed his fight against foreign trial and imprisonment of U. S. troops abroad.

The Canton Republican said he is reintroducing a resolution calling for change or abrogation of status of forces agreements the United States has with many countries in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

The agreements allow foreign criminal jurisdiction over U. S. troops overseas when they are off duty and away from their bases.

Bow first introduced his resolution in 1954. Congress never has acted on it. The Eisenhower administration has opposed the resolution.

The Ohio congressman said recent defense department reports "revealed 24,000 American servicemen have been arrested and charged with offenses by foreign courts, and over 100 are serving sentences in foreign prisons."

Two days ago, Sen. Ervin (D-NC) said American service personnel are being well treated in foreign courts. Ervin is chairman of an armed services subcommittee on NATO status of forces treaties. He said his group has made a continuing inquiry into the situation.

GOP Leaders Hold Off on Endorsements

Action May Follow Inaugural Rites For New Governor

The political pot will be boiling overtime during the next two weeks, especially after Jan. 14 when Gov.-elect C. William O'Neill assumes office and many changes among state appointees in various branches of the state government are expected to be made.

The Fayette County Republican Central Committee, of which Sheriff Orland Hays is chairman, is to hold a meeting here sometime within a few days after the inauguration of Gov. O'Neill, and then make such endorsements for state positions of applicants from this county whom the committee believes may have a chance for appointments in the new state administration.

According to Hays it is regarded by local Republican leaders as a better policy to wait until the committee learns what openings are likely to be available before acting on any applications which may be filed.

THE LOCAL committee expects to be well represented at the various ceremonies attending and immediately after the inauguration. It has arranged for a suite of hotel rooms on inauguration day for use of committeemen and friends from this county.

There will be conferences by committee officials with various Republican state officials, and from these conferences, it will be determined what action the committee should take during the following week.

Portsmouth Phone Lines Being Repaired

PORTSMOUTH — The struck Ohio Consolidated Telephone Co. continued repair work today on slashed cables which disrupted service to more than 1,000 subscribers in the Portsmouth area Wednesday night.

There were no new acts of vandalism reported in the long and bitter dispute between the company and the Communications Workers of America.

The striking CWA has denied any responsibility for the cable cuttings and other acts of vandalism. A company spokesman said service to three Portsmouth hospitals was still out but the state highway patrol had its phones working again.

Negotiations to replace a contract which expired July 15 will resume in Columbus Tuesday. Retention of the union shop, arbitration and classification of certain supervisory positions are major issues blocking settlement.

Meanwhile, a National Labor Relations Board hearing will resume here Monday. The company has filed unfair labor practice charges against the union.

Dell Gets Post On Liquor Board

COLUMBUS — State Sen. Edward H. Dell (D-Builer), Thursday received appointment to the state liquor board from outgoing Gov. Frank J. Lausche.

Dell, a Middletown attorney, fills the vacancy created by the resignation of Frank M. Krebs of Dayton to become clerk of the Montgomery County common pleas court.

Dell will serve until Feb. 4, 1957. The governor also announced the reappointment of Zoyd M. Flaler to another one-year term as director of public works.

3 Cleveland Papers Face Trust Claims

CLEVELAND — An investigation into possible violation of federal anti-trust laws in the shutdown last November of Cleveland's three major daily newspapers was called for Thursday night by the Cleveland Newspaper Guild, a union of editorial and commercial employees.

The members of Guild Local 1 voted unanimously to ask its parent union, the American Newspaper Guild, "to initiate appropriate action in Congress to cause an investigation of the antitrust aspects of the newspaper lockout in Cleveland in November, 1956."

The guild struck the Cleveland Press, published by Scripps-Howard, on Nov. 1 in a dispute over a new contract. Forest City Publishing Co. then suspended publication of its two papers—the Plain Dealer and the News—when truck drivers refused to handle editions bearing the name of the Press along with the names of the Forest City papers.

Contract agreements between the guild and all three papers were reached Nov. 16, but the publishers said the offers accepted by the guild were contingent upon a settlement being reached between the publishers and all the unions involved in the production of the newspapers.

Publication was not resumed until Nov. 26, after new contracts were worked out with the craft unions.

Both publishing firms denied there was any lockout.

Jefferson County Phone Probe Set

COLUMBUS — The state utilities commission will hold a public hearing in Steubenville Feb. 19, to investigate the quality of Ohio Consolidated Telephone Co. service in parts of Jefferson County.

The company has been struck since July 15, 1956, by the Communications Workers of America. More than 100 subscribers living in seven small towns in Jefferson County last November petitioned the commission for a hearing and claimed service was "far below minimum standards."

Swine Banquet Plans Yet To Be Announced

The annual meeting of the Fayette County Swine Breeders and Feeders Assn. was confused with the annual swine banquet in a story carried in the Record-Herald yesterday.

The association's annual meeting will be held Jan. 14, but plans for the banquet have not yet been announced.

Arrangements for the annual meeting were made this week, with Robert Snyder of Clinton County as a guest at the planning session.

No Volunteers For CD Rescue Crew Positions

Not a single volunteer for a proposed county Civil Defense rescue crew showed up Thursday night for a scheduled organizational meeting, and George Montgomery, CD chief of rescue, warned today that the chance of getting a rescue truck stationed in Washington C. H. will be lost unless 20 people volunteer within 30 days to man it.

Montgomery said he is arranging to have the CD truck now based in Wilmington brought here for display Jan. 26. The unit, equipped with rescue tools and first aid supplies to combat disasters, will be on exhibit from 2 to 8 p. m. near the Courthouse.

If a volunteer crew can be organized by Feb. 2, Montgomery added, state CD headquarters will name a captain and team leaders, uniform and equip the personnel, and supply the truck.

The unit which would be based locally is one which was allocated to Hillsboro, then lost when that city did not provide a full crew of volunteers.

Supply Ship Finally Freed From Ice Pack

McMURDO SOUND, Antarctica — The crew of an Operation Deep Freeze supply ship made emergency repairs today in the shelter of an A taretic cape after fighting their 7,400-ton vessel free from a crushing ice pack.

The captain of the U. S. Navy freighter Arneb messaged that his craft had reached the safety of Cape Hallett. Work was started to patch a gaping hole above the waterline and crack in the hull inflicted by the blows of monster wind-driven ice floes.

Capt. Nels C. Johnson, of Alexandria, Va., reported by radio that ice pressure had damaged both sides of the hull along the full length of the ship but that flooding was under control. One of the Arneb's two propellers also was damaged.

Johnson said there were no injuries to crew members and no loss of cargo. The Arneb carries about 200 men.
